DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-2, drawn to a method of obtaining an anti-tumor substance from the blood plasma of even-toe hoofed mammals having leucosis.

Group II, claim(s) 3-5, drawn to a method of obtaining an anti-tumor substance from the colostrum of even-toe hoofed mammals having leucosis.

The inventions listed as Groups I – II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons.

The requirement of unity of invention is not fulfilled because there is no technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features. The expression “special technical features” means those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art. Therefore, a technical relationship is lacking among the claimed inventions involving one or more special technical features. In the instant case, there is no common technical feature that links the two inventions. Group I is drawn to a method of making an anti-tumor substance that is found in the plasma of certain animals. Group II is drawn to a method of making an anti-tumor substance that is found in the colostrum of these animals. The substances are different, as plasma and colostrum are very different compositions. They differ greatly in their chemical make-up and in their chemical, physical and biological properties. Further, each method has different steps.

Because there is no common technical feature, it is clear that the claims of Groups I - II lack a single common technical feature that defines them over the prior art.

Art Unit: 1653

Further, an international application containing claims to different categories of inventions will be considered to have unity of invention if the claims are drawn only to one of certain combinations of categories:

- (1) A product and a process specially adapted for the manufacture of said product; or
 - (2) A product and process of use of said product; or
 - (3) A product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and a use of the said product; or
 - (4) A process and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process; or
 - (5) A product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process (see 37 CFR 1.475(b)-(d)).
- In the instant case, the claims are drawn to two different methods, each method making a different product. This particular combination of inventions may not be considered for unity of invention, as indicated in the list above.

Accordingly, a holding of lack of unity of invention is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
